The Cunard Selection

06 April 2011

There are always benefits in planning for the future. Here is one of them: you won't want to miss out on a European cruise aboard the world's grandest ocean liners in the 2012-13 cruise season.

The program is an inspiring selection: more than 80 seven-night, 12-night and 20-night European itineraries; 20 Transatlantic crossings; plus a 91-day 'Exotic Voyage' on the new Queen Elizabeth – departing Southampton, the voyage sweeps across the Atlantic into the Caribbean, passing through the Panama Canal before visiting lush Pacific Islands and the magical beauty of 'Middle Earth', New Zealand (with only a hop, skip and jump, to get home).

In Europe, 12-night Mediterranean voyages on Queen Elizabeth will visit the Black Sea, Turkey, Egypt and the Greek Isles, stopping at Venice, Rome and Athens, while Queen Victoria will explore Norwegian fjords and Baltic cities in a series of spellbinding cruises.
